

Smooches and Pooches

at the Westminster Dog Show

Photos by Samira Bouaou
Epoch Times

The annual Westminster Kennel Club Dog Show is a two-day extravaganza of all dog breeds imagined, from groomed, toy-sized pooches to agile hounds.

Evening events always take place at the Madison Square Garden and in recent years organizers added Piers 92/94 for daytime events.

The Westminster Kennel Club is the nation's oldest organization dedicated to the sport of purebred dogs, which started in 1877 and recognizes about 170 varieties.

Last year over 3,000 dogs competed and over 305,000 dogs have participated in the competition since its inception.

For more info on this year's show, visit WestminsterKennelClub.org.

